- FROM THEORY TO PRACTICE
- CONNECTING THOUGHT TO ACTION
- BECOMING REFLECTIVE LEARNERS

EXISTING

“I always thought about what a wonderful service you and your students provided. My family and I were so grateful. In the middle of a mess and chaos I had you and your team, creative and caring, give me light at the end of the "tunnel". I am forever in gratitude.”

PROPOSED

WINNERS OF THE 2013 A&D GRANT AT FIT

LESSONS LEARNED

- SERVICE LEARNING EXTENDS THE MISSION OF EDUCATION
- IT FORGES STRONGER LINKS WITH THE COMMUNITY
- IT CULTIVATES MINDFUL LEADERS
- IT BROADENS THE DEFINITION OF SCHOLARSHIP

EXISTING

BOWERY MISSION WOMEN'S CENTER

“The laundry room you and your students renovated for the Bowery Mission’s residence for women reflected all of that ... Your students visited the site, spoke to the women, worked together and created a space that functions as an effective work area, a conversation place, and a hideaway for someone wanting a few minutes alone. The students not only executed the design ... [but] also managed to recruit appropriate in-kind donations of tile, paint, electric, plumbing, and labor! It was truly a work of art that is enjoyed ... [by] the woman daily.

Veronica Kelly,
Bowery Mission Special Projects Manager
